

Anna Pankova

Deputy Director of Strategic Development CJSC "OptoGaN"

Anna finished Saint-Petersburg Polytechnic University in 2007. Anna has graduated with specialization in "Marketing".

The career of Anna Pankova has begun in 2003 as a manager of advertisement in the advertising agency "Delcom Media".

From 2006 Anna took part in entering the market of the company Koroplastic (dance studio).

From 2008 Anna occupied PR promotion of staff company Manpower in the North-West region. This is a leader of staff industry in the world.

In 2008 Anna Pankova was a co-chairman of PR committee SPIBA.

In 2010 Anna has become a part of team of The Department of Strategic Development. Strategy of company is to become a chief Russian producer of High Brightness Light Emitted Diodes and a developer of modern power-effective and ecological Light Emitted Diodes lighting.

Anna's activity is connected with realization of regional programs about power-supply and rising of energetic efficiency and organization of joint production of contract linkage on the territory of Russian Federation that promote realization of Federal law of Russian Federation №261-FL from 23.11.2009 "About power-supply and about rising of energetic efficiency and about making amendments to independent legislative acts of Russian federation".

Allow me to nominate myself for election on the position of a co-chairman of Committee in marketing for effective activity for benefit of Association and our companies, and use all my experience for benefit of partners and business-community.